

Women with Vision!

Speakers' & Trainer's Bureau

2 of our many speakers...

Sue Kenney is a pilgrim, author, keynote speaker and a leader. She has walked 780 km across the Camino in northern Spain in the dead of winter. Sue Kenney's best selling book "My Camino" has made her a sought after inspirational and motivational speaker.

Donna Messer is an author, speaker and trainer – an inspiring, passionate motivator who truly walks her talk. She has addressed audiences on three continents with motivational and inspiring keynote presentations in both the public and private sectors. She is published in magazines and newspapers globally and featured on radio and television internationally.

Since the conception of Women with Vision Inc. in 1999 many women in business have been highlighted on its magazine cover, television show and at lunch & learn networking workshops. Now Women with Vision introduces its own professional Speakers' & Trainer's Bureau.

Our portfolio is growing quickly. The speakers we represent are leaders in their field – speakers who are empowering, vision oriented have earned national and international recognition in the fields of business, technology and society. More importantly, many have proven their value through best selling books, landmark and innovative ideas and the fruition of business concepts.

At Women with Vision Inc. we specialize in meeting the needs of organizations as diverse as corporations, associations, universities, health-care and non-profit groups. Our team of experts works in an energetic and friendly environment, emphasizing ongoing creativity and mutual respect. We are proud of our reputation for honesty and integrity among speakers, customers and colleagues.
